FIGHTING TO BEGIN

Venezuelan Ships Sunk and Troops are Pouring in.

German and British Soldiers Released on Demand of the United States Minister.

VENEZUELA UP AGAINST IT

TROOPS ARE ARRIVING.

La Guayra, Dec. 11—Two thousand Venezuelan troops have arrived at La Guayra and more are expected. Venezuela is preparing to resist the German-British forces. The excitement is intense, all classes carrying arms. Arrangements are being made by Germans and British to seize Venezuela's customs. The German and British prisoners have been released in response to United States Minister Bowen's demands. A report has reached London that fighting is in progress at LaGuayra but this report has not been confirmed.

SHIPS WERE SUNK.

La Guayra, Dec. 11—Ten German and four British cutters captured the Venezuelan fleet. They went alongside the Venezuelan vessels and ordered them to surrender. Without a shot being fired the British and German forces seized the fleet in the name of the German emperor and the king of England. Two of the vessels, which were undergoing repairs, were broken up. The German cruiser Panther steamed into the harbor during these proceedings with her decks cleared for action. The Venezuelan steamers were taken outside the harbor and the General Crespo, Tutmo and Margarita were sunk.

The Ossun was the only vessel spared, in view of the protest made by the French chargé d'affaires, H. Quereux, who notified the commodore of the allied fleet that the Ossun is the property of a Frenchman.

One hundred and thirty German soldiers were landed and proceeded to Cardonal, a suburb of Guayra, in which is situated the residence of German Consul Lentz, whom with his family, they escorted back to LaGuayra and placed on board the warship Vineta. On the way back to this port the German sailors met a party of Venezuela soldiers, but no collision took place.

A landing party of thirty British seamen went to the British consulate and conducted the British consul, R. Schuchardt and his family on board the Retribution. Messrs. Fieldwick, Prince and Lepage, the English directors of the harbor corporation, who had barricaded themselves in their house, were also taken on board the Retribution.

Troops are expected here from Caracas, as the government is credited with the intention of repulsing any landing by the allied forces.

All the stores and banks here are closed. Great excitement prevails, as the population fears that the town may be shelled or other action taken by the Anglo-German vessels.

MANY GERMAN SUB-JEETS ARRESTED

Willemstad, Curacao, Dec. 11—There was a great patriotic demonstration in Caracas when the news arrived that the British and German warships had seized the Venezuelan war vessels at LaGuayra. Crowds quickly gathered and paraded the streets and

TWO FINGERS GONE

EMPLOYEE OF THE CORDAGE FACTORY HURT TODAY.

William Gates, of 1029 North Eleventh street, met with a serious accident this morning while working at a cleaning machine at the Cohankus Mfg Co., where he is employed. He was caught in the machine and before he could stop the machine two fingers were cut off. Drs. Reddick and Coleman were summoned and dressed the injury.

Captain James Lemon arrived from Mayfield today at noon.

HE REFUSED RESTRAINING ORDER

Judge Husbands Announced That He Would Decide the Case, January 8th.

The two injunction suits against the mayor, board of councilmen and aldermen, police and fire commissioners, Chief of police and other officers were this morning filed in the circuit clerk's office by Attorneys Berry and Reed, for City Marshal Crow, and Attorneys Bloomfield and Crice for Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert, seeking to restrain the above from acting in such a capacity as to deprive the aforesaid officers, Marshal Crow and Attorney Gilbert, of their offices or their fees.

Marshal Crow's suit as stated yesterday, alleges two reasons for granting the order, one being that the city was never legally transferred into the second class and is now, or should be, operating under the third class. The other reason is that the marshal was elected for a term of four years, and his term cannot be shortened by any means whatever.

Attorney Gilbert, in his suit, also alleges that Paducah is still in the third class. He asks for an injunction, however, principally on the constitutional provision that the compensation of no officer can be changed during his term of office, and that the officials in power are now trying to reduce his compensation after he has served only one out of four years, by cutting off his fees and paying him a salary.

It is claimed by the city that the legislature has a right to not only abolish officers, but to annul the charter of a city absolutely. It is further claimed that the term of an office existing under any particular charter cannot last longer than the charter itself.

It is likely that Judge Husbands will in the meantime prepare an exhaustive opinion on the questions involved.

Chief of Police James Collins is thus left in charge of the police force, and to collect fines and costs, while Marshal Crow has no compensation and no duties to perform and is virtually "out of business." Of course should he win the suit, he will collect from the city all the fees that would have been due him had he collected them himself.

Attorney Gilbert in the meantime, will collect no more commissions, but will take his $100 salary or nothing. As no injunction was granted on the plaintiffs' attorneys' motion, no bond had to be given when the suits were filed.

Retail Grocers Have a New System Regarding Customers.

Invitation Received From the National Association's Meeting.

The Retail Grocers' Association met last night but nothing of importance was done other than the routine business and the inauguration of the delinquent exchange list.

The grocers have arranged a delinquent list which they exchange every month. This enables the grocers to learn who pays and who does not, and will have a great deal of effect on their business. This is a sort of mercantile agency carried on in a small way.

An invitation was received from the National Retail Grocers' Association to send delegates to the national convention which will be held in Kansas City, Mo., on the 18, 19 and 20 of January. A rate of 1 1/2 will be in effect for both delegates and visitors on all roads and there will probably be several delegates from Paducah to go.

THOMAS GALLAGHER PLEADED GUILTY OF COMPLICITY IN A BLACK CRIME.

Elyria, O., Dec. 11—The trial of Thomas Gallagher, alias James Casey, one of the burglars who was shot during the attempt to rob the home of the Meach brothers, near Rochester, O., October 14, was brought to an abrupt end today when the prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge against him. He was at once sentenced to serve 50 years in the penitentiary.

The donations received today for the Christmas tree for the poor of Paducah were numerous. Personal solicitation was made of many of the merchants and business men down town, and all responded as only Paducah merchants do.

THE JURY HAS IT

REV. SYKES ACCEPTS

Argument in Hutchinson's Case Were Completed Today.

The Ellis Headley Case for Alleged Attempted Bribery Goes to Trial.

WITNESSES BEING HEARD

He Will Become Rector of Grace Episcopal Church in January.

Preached Here Last Sunday and Pleas ed the Congregation Very Much.

IS A PROMINENT MINISTER

The Eli Hutchinson murder case was given to the jury at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and no verdict had been rendered at press time.

The case for alleged attempted bribery against Mr. Ellis M. Headley which has been on the docket for about two years, was called this morning and went to trial. The jury was soon se- cured, and Will Baker, at one time a detective for the Goebelites here, was put on the stand and the beginning of the case consumed largely by sparring between attorneys.

Mr. Headley, it is said, represented the Honest Election League, in this district, and was alleged to have attempted to bribe election officers through Baker, who was a detective. The case was overthrown out of court here on a demurser but taken to the court of appeals and reversed.

It is to be one of the most interesting of this term of court. Mr. Headley is represented by Hon. W. M. Reed, Judge W. A. Berry and Major T. E. Moss.

The last speech in the Eli Hutchinson murder case was made this morning by Commonwealth Attorney William Bradshaw.

The evidence in the case was closed Tuesday and Attorney William Reed, for the defense, opened the argument. He spoke slightly over two hours and was followed by County Attorney Eugene Graves who talked for an hour and a half. Attorney Sam Crossland, for the defense, spoke yesterday for over five hours and this morning Commonwealth's Attorney Bradshaw closed the argument.

The principal evidence in favor of the defense is the threats that Gray was known to have made, and in the fact that several witnesses had testified that Gray was a dangerous man. To the prosecution every advantage was offered and most of the evidence of the case was favorable to them. The evidence showed that Hutchinson had gone to Gray's field and shot him down. It was proved that he had threatened to do this and the crime was witnessed by the murdered man's son and daughter.

The wife's statement and also the dying statement of Gray are strong bits of evidence against Hutchinson who claims that he did it in self defense. He claims that Gray had a knife and wrench in his hand and was coming on him when he was forced to shoot. It was proven that the wrench had been at the farm house and the knife was found closed in Gray's pocket after the shooting.

Bradshaw finished his speech at 10 o'clock and the case was given to the jury at 10:30.

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks Mother's Friend is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers." — Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to child birth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. Mother's Friend takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

CHRISTMAS MONEY

One of our depositors, heeding oft-given advice, started the first of the year to putting away a little sum each day and depositing it with us when it reached a certain amount. He came down this week to draw some "Christmas money" and was surprised to see that he had enough to make all his Christmas purchases.

COUGHING SPELL
CAUSED DEATH.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901."

IS NOT DISCOURAGED

Committee to Work for the Nine-foot Stage Returns to Kentucky.

Was Well Received at Washington But Secured Nothing More Than the Usual Encouragement.

HARD WORK WILL CONTINUE

Messrs. W. W. Hite, F. A. Henry and Bernard Bernstein, who with representatives from Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Cairo, called on the president and members of congress last week, seeking an appropriation for improving the Ohio river, have returned home, says yesterday's Courier-Journal. They presented a resolution adopted at the recent meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, and urged that the money be appropriated as soon as possible so the work can be begun.

"We were cordially received by the president," said Mr. Hite last night, "and he promised to do all he could to secure the improvement. He said he recognized the importance of the proposed work, and was glad to see the residents of the Ohio Valley taking such an active interest in it. Mr. Burton, chairman of the committee on rivers and harbors, also seemed pleased to see us, and promised to assist in securing the appropriation. We had a most enjoyable trip, and I feel sure the improvement will be made in the near future."

Petitions have been sent to all the cities and towns in the Ohio valley, which will be sent to congress as soon as signatures are obtained. The petitions review the proposed work, contain a copy of the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, and urge prompt action.

Mr. Van Pelt has received letters from all the congress men and congressmen-elect from Kentucky promising to do all in their power to secure the passage of a bill providing for an appropriation to complete the work. It was announced at the meeting of the association that more money had been appropriated for improvements of the harbor at Cleveland than would cost to improve the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Cairo.

GOV. TAFT.

PROSPECTS THAT HE WILL GO TO THE SUPREME BENCH.

Washington, Dec. 11—The prospective retirement of Justice Shiras from the supreme court, which was announced by his son some time ago, would take place at no distant day, it is believed here, may result in the promotion to the supreme bench of William H. Taft, the chairman of the Philippine commission.

Governor Taft's elevation to that court would be the fulfillment of the general understanding that he ultimately would be appointed to that court which existed at the time he resigned from the Federal circuit bench in Ohio and took up his present duties, at the request of President McKinley. It also will be in the nature of a reward for his long and arduous work at the head of the Philippine commission. Should Governor Taft retire, the expectation is that his successor as chairman of the commission will be Gen. Luke E. Wright of Tennessee, now vice chairman of the commission.

SUSPICION OF POISON

STOMACH OF PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN TO BE ANALYZED.

Pittsburg, Kan., Dec. 11—The stomach and liver of A. B. Marston, assistant general manager of the Texas and Pacific Coal Co., who died here suddenly yesterday, have been sent to Kansas City for chemical analysis. The circumstances of his death and the condition of the stomach lead to the belief that death was caused by arsenical poisoning. Marston came here to hire negro miners to be shipped to Thurber, Tex., and evidence was brought forth at the inquest to show that persons in Texas were bitterly opposed to importation of the negroes.

Dave Mangum, third clerk of the Clyde, has resigned and gone to St. Louis to go out on the Savannah as second clerk. He is succeeded on the Clyde by First Clerk Aikin, of the Charleston.

CATARH A DANGER SIGN—LOCAL DRUGGISTS GUARANTEE HYOMEI WILL CURE IT.

There is no more common disease than catarh, and there is none that is really more dangerous. It is weakening and debilitating to the whole system, and if allowed to run will in the end result in consumption.

The prevalence of catarh can be readily realized by scanning the advertising columns of any paper. It is noticeable, though, that among the many medicines and treatments that are advertised to cure catarh there is only one which is sold under the positive guarantee of reliable local dealers to refund the money if it does not cure—that is Hyomei, nature's remedy for the cure of catarh.

No dangerous drugs are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. This remedy is breathed through a small pocket inhaler that comes with every Hyomei outfit. The balsamic fragrance of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the throat and lungs, kills the germs of catarh, heals the irritated mucous membrane and gives complete and permanent cure.

Local druggists have sold hundreds of packages of Hyomei; every one under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it did not cure. Only two customers have asked for a refund. This record is something unusual in the annals of medicine. It demonstrates beyond question the remarkable powers of Hyomei to cure catarh.

You should not delay taking advantage of this chance to obtain a remedy for catarh under the "no cure, no pay" plan.

PETER DUNN, THE WRITER, MARRIES MISS ABBOTT.

New York, Dec. 11—Finley Peter Dunn, better known as "Mr. Dooley," was married to Miss Margaret Abbott. There was little display. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles P. Abbott, at No. 30 West Thirty-sixth street, the Rev. Father Pardon officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the families were present.

Following the ceremony an informal wedding banquet was served, and later Mr. and Mrs. Dunn left for the south to be absent a fortnight. Upon their return they will be "at home" at 30 West Thirty-sixth street.

Telegrams of congratulation were received from Anthony Hope, Austin McCarthy, Sir Henry Irving, Sir Conran Doyle, W. W. Jacobs, Sutliff Hyne and dozens of other lesser literary lights.

DISFRANCHISEMENT OF AN INDIANA MAN FOR THIRTEEN YEARS.

Martinsville, Ind., Dec. 11—Arnot Williams was today fined $1, sentenced to thirty days in jail and disfranchised for thirteen years by Special Judge J. C. Robinson of the circuit court. Williams was arrested some days ago on a charge of stealing chickens, but the court suspended sentence on condition that Williams stayed sober and worked every day. The police were directed to watch him, and they found Williams drunk and down in an alley.

RIPE OLD AGE

Prominent Railroad Man Dies at the Age of 78

Was Once President of the Illinois Central Railroad.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 11.—James C. Clarke, president of the Mobile and Ohio railroad and one of the most widely known railroad men in the United States, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. T. Jeffery, 1842 Michigan avenue, of Bright's disease, with which he was attacked nine months ago. Mr. Clarke was also the father of Mrs. Horatio O. Stone.

Mr. Clarke was 78 years old and began his railroading career at an early age. He was born in Montgomery county, Md., in 1824 and entered railway service in 1844 with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

He saw service as an engineer, conductor, station agent and trainmaster, and in 1855 he came to the Illinois Central railroad as general superintendent. His career then ran as follows: 1859 to 1862, superintendent Northern Central road; 1862 to 1870, engaged in iron business; 1870 to 1873, president Chesapeake and Ohio canal company; 1872 to 1874, vice president and general manager Erie road; September, 1874, to 1876, superintendent northern division Illinois Central road; 1876 to 1879, general manager superintendent same road; 1879 to August, 1883, vice president and general manager Illinois Central and Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans roads; August, 1883, to May, 1887, president Illinois Central road; January, 1888, to April, 1889 vice president and general manager Mobile and Ohio road; April, 1889, president and general manager same road.

Mr. Clarke retired from the office of president of the Mobile and Ohio some years ago on account of advancing years. He was succeeded as president by Colonel E. L. Russell, now general counsel. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from Mrs. Jeffery's residence.

Railroads Have Greatly Handicapped the River Business in Late Years.

Forty years ago Pittsburg had boats leaving there daily for Wheeling, Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis, four times a week to Marietta and Parkersburg, twice weekly to Sunfish, one or two boats a week for Memphis and New Orleans and transient boats every week for Cumberland, Tennessee, Wabash, Illinois, Missouri and upper Mississippi rivers, says the Courier-Journal. Wheeling had a fine line of daily packets that run to this city. Also a Marietta and Parkersburg packet. Cincinnati had daily boats leaving for Louisville, Evansville, Nashville, St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans. Also boats to the Missouri, Illinois and upper Mississippi rivers, Louisville had daily packets to Cincinnati, St. Louis, Memphis and Evansville, besides transient boats for Kentucky, Green, Cumberland and Tennessee rivers. Memphis had daily boats to New Orleans and other points. Vicksburg had a daily line of New Orleans boats—the finest and fastest afloat. St. Louis had thirty to forty boats in various trades and more than fifty in the Missouri, Illinois and upper Mississippi alone. Evansville, Cairo, Nashville and other cities had their lines of boats—mostly daily. More than 100 steamboats arrived at St. Louis in those days from Kansas City, Omaha, Council Bluff, Leavenworth and other Missouri river ports. It is the longest river in the world and not a steamboat running in it.

Employee of the Illinois Central Badly Hurt at Dawson.

Soundings Being Made for the I. C. Bridge Opposite Cave-in-Rock, Ill.

LOCAL NOTES OF INTEREST

William Marshall, an employee of the bridge gang on the Illinois Central at Dawson, was seriously injured yesterday at that place while using a jack on the Dawson bridge, the same bridge on which the fatal picnic accident occurred last summer.

Marshall was using a jack when the lever slipped and caused him to lose his balance. He fell to the ground, 20 feet below, and all that saved his life was the soft mud in which he struck. In alighting he fell on his head and shoulders and both are badly bruised and wrenched. His back is also injured but the seriousness can not yet be determined. He was taken home to Kuttawa and this morning was reported doing nicely.

Mr. G. B. Brantley, of the local Illinois Central woodworking shops, left this morning for the Louisville division of the Illinois Central to take an inventory of the boarding and tool cars of the company. An inventory is taken about twice every year. There are a number of tool and boarding cars on that division and Mr. Brantley will look them up and make out a report of the number, the condition, and furnish the same to the proper officials.

The Reevessville branch of the Illinois Central, which runs into Golconda, has just been completed and yesterday afternoon the first train was run over it to Golconda, Ill., and the citizens were out in great numbers to witness the unusual sight, which means so much to them. Golconda has long been dead to the world, and the coming of a railroad means better things for it.

Marion Sullivan, an employee of the car repairing department of the local Illinois Central shop, was injured last night at 7 o'clock while jacking up a loaded freight car. The lever of the jack slipped and struck him in the chin inflicting a deep cut several inches long. He was sent to the hospital where the injuries were dressed.

Mr. Albert Gilbert, who left Paducah a few years ago as a small boy has just been made chief clerk to Mr. J. S. Taylor, superintendent of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, with headquarters at Mobile. His promotion has been very rapid, which his many friends here will learn with pleasure.

A corps of Illinois Central engineers is engaged at Marion, Ky., in making soundings on the Kentucky side of the Ohio river for the bridge the Illinois Central is to build opposite Cave-in-Rock, Ill., in building its St. Louis-Nashville line.

Mr. R. O. Williams, of Princeton, has arrived in the city and gone to work as night operator in the local Illinois Central yard office to succeed Mr. J. K. Rightler who has been transferred to Princeton.

COULD NOT SAVE THE NEGRO.

SHERIFF WHO WAS REMOVED MAKES STATEMENT.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 11.—Sheriff Dudley, of Sullivan county, whose office was vacated recently because of the lynching of a negro, was given a hearing by Governor Durbin today. He says he used every precaution to save the negro. He says he could have shot members of the mob, but that it would not have saved the negro. He says the negro waived extradition papers, and left Illinois without protest. He denies the Illinois story that he was drunk and took the negro away without warrant.

His case is attracting much attention, as it tests the anti-lynching law.

CHILD IN JAIL

THE INFANT IS CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 11.—A baby not yet 2 years old was arrested and spent the night in the county jail with its grandmother. Both are charged with contempt of court. The baby is Ethel Stout and its parents, Harvey and Ella Stout, live in Kansas City, Kan.

A few days ago the Stouts had trouble and the father carried the baby to the home of his mother, Mrs. Jane Stout, on Virginia avenue. Mrs. Ella Stout filed a petition saying that she believed Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Stout intended to carry the child away to Oregon.

The writ called for the appearance of the woman in court at 4 o'clock. She refused to appear. Judge Fischer issued a bench warrant. Mrs. Stout and little Ethel were brought to the jail by the under sheriff. Judge Fischer has not yet set the hearing for the habeas corpus proceeding. The baby was included in the warrant, or some other member of the family might have left with her.

VERY SENSATIONAL

PROMINENT CHURCH MEMBERS OF HENDERSON FALL OUT.

Henderson, Dec. 11.—A sensational libel suit for $30,000 damages was filed in the circuit court by J. Byron Larue, president of the Owensboro college, Owensboro, Ky., against Ed T. Robards, a wealthy tobacco manufacturer of this city, also a member of the school board. The suit is based on a letter alleged to have been written by the defendant in which he denounces the plaintiff as a scoundrel and uses other harsh terms.

It appears in the petition that both were members of the Christian church of this city and that plaintiff left here and went to Owensboro, and afterward Robards wrote a letter to Larue asking payment of $10,40, said to be due the church by Larue as his subscription. Other letters passed which finally led up to the last letter, on which the suit was brought.

Sensational developments are expected when the suit comes up for trial.

The Inverness, Duffey and Pavonia, the Ayer and Lord tieboats, will arrive tomorrow or Saturday from Cumberland river with ties.

Moving Fast

Our line of fall overcoats is moving right along. We never before had anything like so good a trade at this time of year. Perhaps the reason for it is that we never before had anything like such an attractive line of goods. Every garment in our fall stock is cut right in the height of fashion and perfectly tailored—is finished inside and out with all the characteristics of the best kind of made-to-measure goods. When you see the clothes you will guess the price to be from 20 to 40 per cent more than they really are.

LITIGATION BEGINS.

It will be a matter of general regret if Marshal Crow wins the suit to hold onto his office, not because there is any objection to him, but because if on either the ground that the city is not in the second class, or has no right to abridge a term of office, the marshal wins, it means to the people that they will have to put up with the "injunction crowd" for three years longer; while if he loses it will mean an election next year, when the whole crew, administration and all, will be scuttled and allowed to sink to well earned oblivion.

Marshal Crow has to individually foot the bill for having a question tested in the courts that other officials have been itching to get tested for their own personal benefit for weeks, and who are responsible for the present litigation. The people want the laws enforced and want to be governed according to law, but they do not like to see a few mercenary officials run over the people of Paducah rough-shod to serve their own ends, and try to excuse themselves on the plea that they are complying with the law. They are simply deceivers, and cannot be trusted. The people will also remember those officials who, in order to hold onto sinecures and draw pay that they do not earn, are willing and seek to disorganize the city government and produce confusion in a city of over 20,000 people. When all this muddle is settled in the courts it will probably be seen that the officials have nothing to show for it but a memory and the receipt for a fat lawyer's fee, and they will thereafter be politically dead.

The fight over the marshal's office may be considered unavoidable by some people, but it was not. It was pointed out by The Sun over a year ago that the office ought to be abolished before the election, but the crowd in office, as usual, was not open to advice. Considered as a body politic it knows everything, and the person or paper who dares to offer suggestions gets the icy mit. The people would have been a great deal better off if the officials had paid more attention to some of the advice that has been offered them in the past.

A young newspaper man's experience with a giddy girl in Memphis has conclusively demonstrated that it is sometimes dangerous for a young man, especially a married one as he was, to get gay with a strange girl, as well as dangerous for the girl. She made friends with him on the train, and when Memphis was reached was indiscreet enough to drink with him. He did not offend or mistreat her in any way, but she became intoxicated after he left her and was afterwards picked up on the street and a great sensation made of it in the newspapers, disgracing her and bringing the young man into a great deal of unpleasant notoriety. It developed that there was nothing to the incident except that the liquor given to brace her up after a tiresome trip went to the young lady's head after the young man left her, but it will be a long time before either will be able to forget the publicity the innocent incident has given. The good advice to girls not to take up with strange young men should be accompanied by the good advice to men not to drink with strange young girls.

If Venezuela or some of the other South American countries are given a good spanking they will learn better manners. They have apparently come to the conclusion that they can act with the most offensive indifference towards other nations, and that the strong arm of the United States will uphold them in it because of the "mysterious" Monroe Doctrine. This government does not desire to see the weaker countries of America imposed on, but it cannot afford to encourage or support them in some of their acts towards other countries. A good drubbing will teach them something and not only be a benefit to them, but to other nations as well, for they would be more civil thereafter.

Chief Was Disappointed.
A delegation of Chippewa Indians this morning, after a call of respect at the White House, where they were cordially received by President Roosevelt, were taken to the War Department to be presented to Secretary Root. When the Secretary entered the big reception room the interpreter, addressing the chief, who was seated in an easy chair, said:

"This is the Secretary of War." The chief critically eyes the head of the War Department for a moment and then, with an "umph!" of assumed indifference, slowly arose and shook hands with Mr. Root. Evidently the chief expected to see the head of the War Department gorgeously bedecked in gold and plumes.—Washington Correspondence.

Reforming Offenders.

"Golden Rule" Jones, mayor of Toledo, was recently legislated out of the office of peace magistrate and on the last day upon which he discharged his duties, he also discharged all those brought before him charged with trivial misdemeanors with the injunction, "Now try to be a good man." To every offender he spoke gently, advising him to mend his ways and brace up. Five "plain drunks" were much affected by the mayor's kindly words. "Before leaving the court room and of their own volition five men in turn grasped Mayor Jones hand and made a solemn pledge never to touch another drop of liquor. There was scarcely a dry eye in the court room as this pathetic scene was enacted."

SON ATTACKS APPOINTMENTS OF THE ADMINISTRATORS.

Colorado Springs, Col., Dec. 11—The fight of L. Harry Stratton for the millions of his dead father, W. S. The son objects to Dines and Rice, who are two of the three executors appointed in the will of the dead millionaire, and who fought to a successful finish the hostile administrators a month ago.

GLASS OF WATER

UPSET HER.

People that don't know about food should never be allowed to feed persons with weak stomachs.

A little over a year ago a young woman who lives in Mercer, Mo., had an attack of scarlet fever, and when convalescent was permitted to eat anything she wanted. Indiscriminate feeding soon put her back in bed with severe stomach trouble and inflammation of the kidneys.

"There I stayed," she says, "three months, with my stomach in such condition that I could take only a few teaspoonfuls of milk or beef juice at a time. Finally Grape Nuts was brought to my attention and I asked my doctor if I might eat it. He said, 'yes,' and I commenced at once.

The food did me good from the start and I was soon out of bed and entirely recovered from the stomach trouble. I have gained ten pounds since my recovery and am able to do all household duties, some days sitting down only long enough to eat my meals. I can eat anything that one ought to eat, but I still continue to eat Grape Nuts at breakfast and supper and like it better every day.

Considering that a year ago I could stand only a short time and that a glass of water seemed 'so heavy,' I am fully satisfied that Grape Nuts has been everything to me and my return to good health is due solely to it. I have told several friends having nervous or stomach trouble what Grape Nuts did for me and in every case they speak highly of the food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Wednesday makes the following announcement in its society notes:

There will be no attendants, and all of the details will be quiet, although carried out with artistic decorations and elegant simplicity. She has recently returned from a trip abroad, where she and Mr. Burns first met in Paris.

Mr. Burns is a prominent banker and multi-millionaire of St. Joseph, Mo., and is of fine family.

The wedding was a very quiet one at the bride's home, and the couple left immediately for St. Joseph, making no bridal trip.

Burlington
Route

The Man In Charge

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month the Burlington sells homeseekers' tickets to the territory East of the Rockies at one fare plus $2.00 round trip. On the same dates one-way settlers' tickets to the same region are sold at a trifle more than half rates.

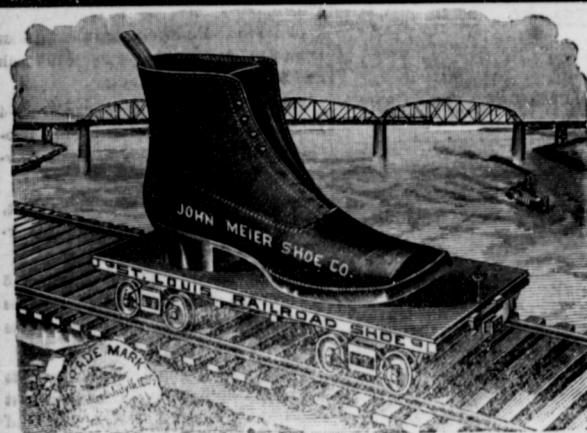

The Burlington best reaches the corn belt, the wheat belt, the livestock areas of the Louisiana Purchase, and, in connection with the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railroads, forms direct routes to the upper Northwest country through St. Louis or Chicago.

The generous harvest of 1902 in the West is a strong appeal to homeseekers and investors to see the rewards now being gained by farmers, stock raisers and fruit growers, not only in the regions of natural rainfall, but in the spreading irrigated districts of Eastern Colorado, Northwest Nebraska, the North Platte and Big Horn Valleys of Wyoming, also of Idaho, Montana and Washington.

Send for any of our special land publications, all free—"Nebraska," "Black Hills Mining," "North Platte Valley," "Big Horn Basin," "West Nebraska Grazing Country," "The Corn Belt," also of Minnesota, the Dakotas, or the Northwest.

FOOTBALL PLAYER'S AILMENT.

G. B. WESCHLER, IN A STATE OF DELIRIUM.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11—G. B. Weschler, who, during the past season played left half back on the University of Pennsylvania football team, is in the university hospital in a state of delirium. Weschler was not hurt while playing football in any way which would account for his condition. Two football players are constantly sitting at his bedside to soothe his mind when he becomes excited and to hold him down when he tries to get up and fight. When delirious he broods over football till he rises up and tries to play the game on the hospital floor.

The doctors' diagnose his case as acute mania, but are much puzzled to account for it. His temperature is normal.

Dr. P. H. Stewart entertained the McCracken County Medical society last evening and a pleasant meeting was held. The attendance was fairly good.

TO PURCHASE THE LANDS.

Capt. J. F. Beatty, Capt. E. R. Dutt and Dr. D. G. Murrell of the city contemplate the purchase of 4,500 acres of fine timber land [above Bowling Green, Ky., on Green river, provided the government builds locks and dams in order to make the river navigable the year around. If this is done, which seems likely, the valuable tie timber can be secured, and there may be mineral deposits on the lands. Capt. Beatty has now gone up to look over the land.

CASE II3

By...
Emile
Gaboriau

received an answer.

"What was it?"

"Have patience," said M. Verduret as he turned over the leaves of his memoria.

"Ah, here is No. 1. Bow respectfully to it; 'tis official."

He then read:

"Lagors. Very old family, originally from Mailane, settled at St. Remy about a century ago."

"You see?" cried Prosper.

"Pray, allow me to finish," said M. Verduret, who proceeded:

"The last of the Lagors (Jules-Rene-Henri), bearing without warrant the title of count, married in 1829 Miss Rosalie Clarisse Fontanet of Tarascon; died December, 1848, without male heir, but left two daughters. The registers of the province make no mention of any person in the district bearing the name of Lagors.

"She loves me, she is free, and yet she shuns me."

"She is not free. In breaking off her engagement with you she was governed by some powerful, irrepressible motive. She is sacrificing herself—for whom? We shall soon know, and the secret of her self sacrifice will discover to us the secret of the plot of which you are the victim."

As M. Verduret spoke Prosper felt all his resolutions of revolt slowly melting away and their place taken by confidence and hope.

"If what you say were true!" he merrily said.

"Why do you persist in obstinately shutting your eyes to the proof I place before you? Can you not see that Mlle. Madeleine knows who the thief is?"

"Impossible!"

"She does, but no human power can tear the secret from her. She sacrifices you. But, then, she almost has the right, since she first sacrificed herself."

Prosper was convinced, and it nearly broke his heart to leave this little parlor where he had seen Madeleine.

"Alas," he said, pressing M. Verduret's hand, "you must think me a fool! But you don't know how I suffer!"

For a moment Prosper was silent, then he said:

"I have finally decided. My honor is a sacred trust for which I must account to my family. I am ready to follow you to the end of the world. Dispose of me as you judge proper."

That same day Prosper, faithful to his promise, sold his furniture and wrote a letter to his friends announcing his intended departure for San Francisco. In the evening he and M. Verduret installed themselves in the Archangel.

CHAPTER IX.

NOT far from the Palais Royal is the sign of The Good Faith, a small establishment, half cafe and half shop, frequented by the people of the neighborhood. It was in one of the rooms of this modest cafe that Prosper the day after his release awaited M. Verduret, who had promised to meet him at 4 o'clock. The clock struck 4. M. Verduret, who was punctually itself, appeared. He was more red faced and self satisfied, if possible, than the day before. As soon as the servant had left the room to obey his orders he said to Prosper:

"Well, are our commissions executed?"

"Yes, monsieur."

"Have you seen the costumer?"

"I gave him your letter, and everything you ordered will be sent to the Archangel tomorrow."

"Very good. You have not lost time. Neither have I. I have good news for you."

The Good Faith is almost deserted at 4 o'clock. M. Verduret and Prosper could talk at their ease without fear of being overheard by gossiping neighbors. M. Verduret drew forth his memorandum book, the precious diary which, like the enchanted book in fairy tales, had an answer for every question.

"While awaiting our emissaries whom I appointed to meet here let us devote a little time to M. de Lagors. Do you know what part of France this devoted friend of yours comes from?"

"From St. Remy, which is also Mme. Fauvel's native town."

"Are you sure?"

"Oh, perfectly so, monsieur. He has not only often told me so, but I have heard him tell M. Fauvel, and he would tell Mme. Fauvel about his mother, who was her cousin and dearly beloved by her."

"Then you think there is no possible mistake about this?"

"No, monsieur."

"Well, things are beginning to look queer."

And he began to whistle between his teeth, which with M. Verduret was a sign of intense satisfaction.

"What do you mean, monsieur?" inquired Prosper.

"What has just happened, what I have been tracing. Here is a lovely town called St. Remy, 6,000 inhabitants, charming boulevards on the site of the old fortifications, fine state-houses, numerous fountains, large charcoal market, silk factories, famous hospital, and so forth."

Prosper was on burning coals.

"Please be so good, monsieur."

"It also contains," continued M. Verduret, "a Roman triumphal arch which is of unparalleled beauty and a Greek mausoleum, but no Lagors. St. Remy is the native town of Nostradamus, but not that of your friend."

"Nevertheless I have proofs."

"Naturally. But proofs can be fabricated; relatives can be improvised. Your evidence is open to suspicion; mine are authenticated. While you were pinning in prison I was preparing my batteries and collecting munition to open fire. I wrote to St. Remy and

Tillman Manus Used His Knife in Self Defense.

Only a Few Other Cases Before Judge Sanders Today.

Tillman Manus, an employee of the Ayer and Lord Tie company, was this morning acquitted in police court of a charge of maliciously cutting Pete Griffin last June some time, in Sebree's saloon. The evidence showed that Manus was there attending to his own business when Griffin and a crowd of six or eight came in half drunk, and when one asked him what his business was, and he replied a caulkier, Griffin remarked that he "looked more like a country s— of a b— than a river man."

Manus went out to avoid trouble, and when he returned to get one of his friends Griffin threw a bottle at him when his back was turned and then ran over and the two mixed, Manus trying to defend himself. He succeeded in getting out his knife and cut Griffin slightly on the cheek.

Mike Murray, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Pete Bennett, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Tony Iseman was arraigned for slapping a youth named Brewster and the case was left open until tomorrow.

The petty larceny case against Rosa and Eli Boswell and Bud Henderson, colored, for stealing meat from J. D. Overstreet grocery, was continued.

RUFFIANS WORSTED

Lively Time Had Today on a St. Louis Train.

The Bullies Were Finally Put Off the Train.

Conductor Rutt, who brought in the St. Louis train yesterday afternoon, had a rough time between here and Carbondale with five ruffians who had boarded the train at Carbondale. The men were coming south to work on sections of the double track and were in a car of their own. The car was attached to the train and the men, who were drinking heavily, got boisterous and tried to rob a young man who fled into the front car with the passengers. The men tried to enter the passenger car but the door was guarded by Conductor Rutt and Yardmaster Durham, of Brookport, who happened to be on the train.

A free for all fight ensued and Durham pulled his gun and struck one of the men over the head with it. The pistol flew out of his hand and exploded, the ball entering his hand but not inflicting a serious injury. The men were subdued and put off the train at Reeves, about 14 miles from Metropolis. Conductor Rutt's hand was bruised but other than this he is uninjured. All the ruffians had guns but were not given time to use them.

WE ARE SEVEN

MAYFIELD'S LATEST CONTRIBUTION TO EDDYVILLE SOCIETY.

The seven prisoners convicted at the term of circuit court just closed at Mayfield were sentenced yesterday and are as follows:

Tom Tinker, who was captured after running amuck in the wilds of Graves for several weeks, was sent up for life, as he had previously served two terms. He burglarized a store and broke jail a time or two, going armed constantly and dodging about the county instead of escaping to other parts.

Phil Skinner received two years for breaking into Hotel Hall.

John Stovall was given two years for stealing a horse at Wingo.

Henry Jordan got a year for stealing groceries.

Bob Rogers for stealing a horse at Mayfield and selling it in Union City, Tenn., was given three years.

Henry Alcock got one year for trying to burn Pigg's sawmill.

Bunk Sherrill, for stealing received one year.

REMARKABLE TEMPERATURE.

THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE FOR MANY HOURS.

A peculiar condition of the atmosphere has followed the cold weather of earlier in the week. Yesterday it was quite pleasant, and the record in Government Observer Bornemann's office shows that there was no change in temperature from 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 7 o'clock this morning, when the last official observation was made, and there had been none since, as shown by the thermometer after 7 this morning.

It is very unusual for the temperature to remain stationary, especially at this time of the year, when the nights are usually very much cooler than the days.

THE FATAL SPOT

In everybody's foot there is one weak spot—The toes are strong, the ball of the foot is firm, the heel is unyielding, but the ARCH of the foot under the instep is a weak place. Being arched it is wholly unsupported—being weak it is the one place that gets tired, but all the same it is the muscle by which you walk, it is the one part of the foot that needs to be helped.

The Dorothy Dodd Shoe

supports the arch of the foot by a special curved shank between the inner and outer soles, this shank exactly follows the arch of the foot. It holds its shape and supports the foot.

Respectfully,

Dorothy Dodd
